Check your policy

Your current renter's, homeowner's, vehicle/automobile, watercraft, personal liability, business or other insurance policy may provide coverage for your stored property. Consult your insurance agent to determine if your property is covered while in storage and review your policy exclusions, deductible amount, and coverage limits. While you may already be covered through other policies, the Bader Insurance Program may provide more specialized coverage.

BADER program features

Coverage for your personal property stored in your leased unit will be provided under the storage facility's policy. Purchase of this Insurance is NOT REQUIRED to rent storage space.

This brochure contains only a general description of the coverages and does not constitute a contract. A Certificate of Property Insurance and an Enrollment Disclosure Summary of Coverage will be provided after your election of coverage.

The employees of the storage facility are not AUTHORIZED to evaluate the adequacy of your existing personal insurance coverage.

All covered losses are subject to a $100 deductible. If you secured your space with a disc or cylinder lock, the deductible is waived. Additional coverage options available in some states.

Additional Terms & Conditions

The policy does not cover certain items such as important papers, money, jewelry, watches, and furs. There are also certain perils not covered which include flood, & unexplained disappearance. Please refer to the Certificate of Property Insurance & Enrollment Disclosure Summary of Coverage for a complete list of exclusions.

Storage tips to help protect against loss lock your space / Use a disk or cylinder lock for a higher level of security.

protect your items / Store your items on pallets or shelves and cover them with sheets to protect them from dust, moisture, etc.
do not store certain items / Refrain from storing 'high-dollar' items such as jewelry or currency and do not store flammable or hazardous materials.
make an inventory / Take an inventory or photos of your stored items and keep it in a safe, separate place.

How to file a claim...the easy way

STEP 1: Ensure your valuables are safe. If your valuables are at risk of sustaining further damage, take necessary precautions to protect them without putting yourself or others in harm's way. Also, tell the facility manager about your loss.

STEP 2: Take pictures of your storage space and any damage your items may have sustained. Don't throw away any damaged property until you speak with a claims adjuster.

STEP 3: If a criminal act appears to have taken place, such as vandalism or burglary, contact local police department to file a police report.

STEP 4: Call a customer service representative:

Toll-Free: 855-805-7433 or visit
BADERco.com/BaderWEB to file a claim.

Relax and rest assured that the claims process will be easy. In the event of a covered loss, a settlement will be issued on an actual cash valuation basis. Once you have replaced the property with similar of like merchandise with the same features, you will need to provide copies of the new receipts for an additional payment up to your elected coverage limit.
